CHINA WORTH THOUSANDS.

Made in Dresden Specially for Mrs. William Astor-Decorated in Gold and Red.

Mrs. William Astor has recently paid a fortune for some dishes. She has given in return for a mere set of china 30,000 American dollars. There are 212 pieces in all, each of which is worth almost its weight in gold. Mrs. Astor now owns the most costly china in America. This $30,000 set of china was originally intended for royalty.

The china was made in the famous Royal Meissen factory in Dresden, and You can be cheerful and happy only when a sample was sent to Mrs. Astor when sent on approval so delighted New York's society leader that she ordered At the War Department it is estimated that the china at once, with instructions to the total collections from all sources in Cuba add the Astor crest and her own mono-

Cervera is dead. Not the Spanish admiral, but the cat-one of the cats from the Cristobal Colon, and with it goes the chief pride and glory of the New the Merritt-Chapman Wrecking company, visited the Colon 26 days after the battle of Santiago for the purpose of raising the Spanish cruiser. The only living thing aboard was a black and white cat. 'The crew of the Right Arm took possession of the cat, adopt ed it as a mascot, and named it Tomas Cervera. But Cervera brought ill-luck. When Lieut, Hobson raised the Maria Gallery. Teresa the rescued cut was placed aboard to be brought to America. The Maria Teresa never reached these shores, and when the vessel grounded off the Bahamas the cat fell into the hands of the natives. It was rescued the second time, and at last reached America, a passenger on the United States repair ship Vulcan.

A "GRIP LUNCH."

Mrs. John A. Logan Invents the Very Latest Fad for New York Society.

Mrs. John A. Logau, of New York, has invented the "grip luncheon," which is said to be positively the latest thing socially. A day or two ago, when she was just recovering from a severe attack herself, she sent around invitations to six of her friends who, as she knew, were confined to their beds with the prevailing epidemic. The time was fixed with the usual formality, but the place was made the home of the invited lady. Promptly at the specified time Mrs. Logan sent out six trays which were delivered at the houses of the afflicted guests, with a pleasant little note containing the names of the other parties to the affair and the good wishes of the hostess for their joint re-
